

ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF CONSERVATION – CAMPER CONSERVATION POSITION DESCRIPTION

Reports to: Director of Conservation

Dates: May 15 (slightly flexible) – August 25 (slightly flexible)

POSITION CONCEPT

The Associate Director of Conservation – Camper Conservation (ADC-CC) leads the Camper Conservation program. Camper Conservation engages Scouts in their environment and offers them the opportunity to give back to Philmont during a three-hour conservation project. The ADC-CC supervises and provides training for 60 staff: the Camper Conservation Coordinator (CCC), 10 Conservation Site Foremen, and 50 Conservationists. The ADC-CC works closely with the ranch management, the Director of Conservation, and other ADCs to ensure that the Conservation Department’s education and recreation management objectives are met.

PHILMONT REQUIREMENTS

- Be over 21 years of age.
- Be able to hike to remote worksites, carrying loads up to 60 pounds.
- Be prepared for strenuous workdays that include hiking and working on rough terrain, in all weather conditions, for 9-12 hours.
- Be prepared to spend up to 6 consecutive nights in undeveloped backcountry campsites.
- Meet the BSA height/weight requirements for high-adventure activities.
- Provide a completed Annual Health and Medical Record upon arrival at Philmont.
- Exemplify the rules, regulations, policies, and procedures described in the Philmont Staff Guidebook and presented during staff training.
- Maintain a clean and approachable look, adhering to the standards for personal appearance described in the Philmont Staff Guidebook.
- Maintain a friendly, helpful, and respectful attitude while providing extraordinary customer service to Philmont’s participants, visitors, and employees.
- Become familiar with all materials supplied prior to the camping season.
- Become familiar with all pertinent Philmont policies and procedures.

DESIRED EXPERIENCE

The ADC-CC needs significant experience working as an informal and formal educator, in a wilderness setting. The ADC-CC should demonstrate excellent leadership, organizational, planning, and conservation work skills. A key component of the position is maintaining relationships with other seasonal and permanent departments on the ranch. The ADC-CC should have an intimate understanding of Philmont’s operations and culture. Excellent social skills, a background in volunteer management, and a background in working with youth are desired. Typical applicants have at least three years of experience at Philmont, including at least two years in the Conservation Department and at least one year as a Conservation Site Foreman. Education and conservation work experience outside of Philmont are also desired.

DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES

- Establish yourself as a leader within the Conservation Department and Philmont Scout Ranch by setting an appropriate example for other staff and participants.
- Oversee the training of the CCC and all Site Foremen, ensuring that they are prepared to perform their jobs as expected by Philmont's permanent and seasonal managers. This includes job skills training and training in the policies, procedures, and practices described in the Philmont Staff Guidebook.
- In coordination with other Philmont department managers ensure that the logistical needs of Camper Conservation projects are met.
- Prepare a training report, documenting the schedule and content of all training provided.
- In partnership with the CCC, provide midsummer and end-of-season evaluations for all staff members.
- Maintain communication with seasonal and permanent Backcountry leadership and other seasonal management regarding Camper Conservation projects. This includes conversations in person and via inter-camp mail, as well as during field visits to work sites.
- Prepare a final report, detailing the summer's operations.
- In cooperation with Field Management and the CCC, conduct periodic project site visits, providing trail construction and priority guidance.
- Coordinate and schedule the Conservationist swap, a continued training and education opportunity for Camper Conservation staff.
- Enthusiastically carry out the mission of Philmont Scout Ranch by completing other duties as assigned by the Director of Conservation, Recreation Resource Manager or other Philmont Managers.
