ABREU OFFERS SCOUTS A CHANCE TO HELP IN THE CONSTRUCTION OF ADOBE STYLE BRICKS, MEXICAN DINNERS AND A CANTINA FOR ROOT BEER AND ENTERTAINMENT. THIS IS AN INTERPRETIVE CAMP SHOWING SCOUTS HOW LIFE IN THE LATE 1800’S AND EARLY 1900’S WOULD HAVE BEEN FOR HOMESTEADING HISPANIC FAMILIES. FISHING IS ALSO AVAILABLE FOR THOSE WHO MAY WANT TO DINE ON CREATURES OF THE FISHING VARIETY.

ANTHONY AKINS - CD, HILARY PELHAM, ANDREW CARTER, ELIZABETH ORGAN, DAVID PEDRICK, ALLISON TAYLOR, ANNA WILSON
Backcountry Staff

Apache Springs

Teepees adorn an aspen lined meadow at Apache Springs. Here Scouts get the pleasure of relaxing in a ‘Jicarilla sauna,’ (Apache Sweat Lodge). Additionally, campers learn how to make arrowheads by knapping (chipping) rock with deer antlers. Campers may also grind corn using a mano and metate formed from smooth rocks and try their hands at archery.
BACKCOUNTRY STAFF

BALDY TOWN

Donnie McDaniel, Joseph Garton, Bin Lizzo (CD), Catherine Swanson, Dan Doedtman, Kyle Gustafson

The site of the North Country Commissary. It offers excellent views of Mount Wheeler and Eagle Nest State Park. It is a base for starting treks to the top of Mount Baldy.

“Sitting on the porch at Baldy Town and looking out over Philmont is awesome! Atop Baldy we can see the plains, every staffed camp and even Colorado. We’re the first to greet the sun and the last to see it.”

- Bin Lizzo
Well known for their beautiful pasture, at Beaubien Scouts are treated to Western folklore, branding, Chuckwagon suppers, horse riding, and evening campfires featuring Cowboy skits and stories.

“If future generations are to remember us with gratitude rather than contempt, we must leave them something more than the miracles of technology. We must leave them a glimpse of the world as it was in the beginning, not just after we got through with it.” ~ Lyndon Johnson
Good luck getting here in your vehicle. Black Mountain is one of the two camps at Philmont that you are unable to get to on staff roads. Because of this, as you can imagine, it is a beautiful and serene camp. Programming includes black powder shooting, blacksmithing and mountain living techniques.
BACKCOUNTRY STAFF

CARSON MEADOWS

Have you ever wanted to kickback and view the Tooth of Time from a comfortable wooden bench while enjoying refreshing Gatorade? Have you ever wanted to frolic through a large meadow ‘til you just can’t frolic anymore? Look no further than Carson Meadows. All of this is possible thanks to the camp’s large porch and meadow view. But Carson Meadows is more than just a photo opportunity. The program allows Scouts to put search and rescue techniques to practical use through staged scenarios. Where else can you say you searched for your “incapacitated” friend while using a two-way radio?

Brendan Wells, Alex Smith, Dina Finato, Kim Willcox, Esther Fahim, Anne Connealy (CD)
CIMARRONCITO IS A CLIMBING CAMP IN WHICH SCOUTS ARE ABLE TO LEARN BASIC CLIMBING SKILLS. THEY HAVE THE ABILITY TO CLIMB SEVERAL ROCK FACES AND TRAVERSE WALLS.

“WRITING ABOUT CLIMBING IS BORING, I WOULD RATHER GO CLIMBING”
~CHUCK PRATT
Backcountry Staff

Clarks Fork

Bruce Wagnell, Austin St. George, Steve Cox, Marty McCoy, Wayne Tindall, Jeremy Ralstin, Ann Leavitt, Phil Lewis - CD, Ted Sitzberger, Tanner Britton

Clarks Fork is the Western Lore Camp for the Central Country. Programming includes horseback riding, branding, chuck wagon dinners and an evening campfire.

“Climb the mountains and get their good tidings. Nature’s peace will flow into you as sunshine flows into trees. The winds will blow their own freshness into you, and the storms their energy, while cares will drop off like autumn leaves.” ~John Muir
CAMP PROGRAM AT CLEAR CREEK INCLUDES A TRAPPING DEMONSTRATION, BLACK POWDER RIFLE SHOOTING AND LATE NIGHT CABIN PORCH STORIES.

“MEN GO BACK TO THE MOUNTAINS, AS THEY GO BACK TO SAILING SHIPS AT SEA, BECAUSE IN THE MOUNTAINS AND ON THE SEA THEY MUST FACE UP, AS DID MEN OF ANOTHER AGE, TO THE CHALLENGE OF NATURE. MODERN MAN LIVES IN A HIGHLY SYNTHETIC KIND OF EXISTENCE. HE SPECIALIZES IN THIS AND THAT. RARELY DOES HE TEST ALL HIS POWERS OR FIND HIMSELF WHOLE. BUT IN THE HILLS AND ON THE WATER THE CHARACTER OF A MAN COMES OUT.”

- ABRAM T. COLLIER
Backcountry Staff

Crater Lake

Staffed by loggers, Crater Lake Staff Camp gives Scouts the opportunity to spar pole climb high into the mountain air and use their manly and womanly muscle to build railroad ties by swinging broad axes. At night Advisors are treated to delectable coffee and treats followed by a hooting and hollering campfire that consists of logging tales and old time bluegrass music. Scouts experience breathtaking views from the cabin breezeway and even more majestic views from the campfire bowl.

"It is only in adventure that some people succeed in knowing themselves." - André Gide
Crooked Creek is one of the two camps on Philmont property that does not have road access and must be supplied via burros or human effort, giving it a remote, rustic beauty. Wildflowers and wildlife are abundant in the camp’s meadows. The programming offered here is homestead themed, and focuses on creating different aspects of homesteading related building projects, and activities.

Cassie Rokita, Izzy Hoss, Rebekah “Boots” Uribe - CD, Jacob Chapman, Scott Eugene Shipley, Chris Wilam
Cyphers Mine represents the remnants of an old mine that was operated from 1900 to the early 1920’s. An old mining cabin known as ‘Charlie’s Cabin,’ still exists there and is filled with vintage mining relics.

The camp offers mine tours and sessions discussing mine construction, workers needed, mining dangers, ore grades, and geology all throughout the summer. Additionally, Scouts are taught to pan for gold and learn the basics in the art of blacksmithing. The ‘Stomp,’ is held in the evenings in ‘Charlie’s Cabin.’
This camp is the Northern most camp on Philmont property and now serves as the gateway to the Valle Vidal. The program at Dan Beard focuses on low impact camping, and is intended to help prepare crews for trekking into the Valle Vidal where Leave No Trace principles can be put into practice. The other main program is the camp’s ‘Challenge Course,’ which is similar to the C.O.P.E. course, challenging the crew to work together and increase their communication skills.
Backcountry Staff

Dean Cow

Vincent D’Ettorre, Graham Annett, Charity Troutt, Brett Carlson, Robby Cordell, Curtis Seifert, Cory Lynn Riemer (CD)

Dean Cow is a rock climbing intensive camp that includes a climbing wall intended for night usage, as well as an excellent volleyball program. Furthermore, an environmental awareness program at Dean Cow helps Scouts understand Philmont’s flora, fauna, geology, and life zones. Visit and become acquainted with some of the Western birds, wildflowers, mammals, lizards, snakes, and insects in this natural outdoor wonderland.

FISH CAMP

FLY-tying, fly-fishing and tours of Waite Phillips’ lodge encompass programming at this exquisite camp, set at the confluence of the Rayado and Aqua Fria waters.

“As you sit on the hillside, or lie prone under the trees of the forest, or sprawl wet-legged by a mountain stream, the great door, that does not look like a door, opens.” ~Stephen Graham

TRAVIS PAYNE, ANNA BARKER, CAITLIN FICKE-CD, ABBY HELTON, PAUL MARSH
Backcountry Staff

French Henry

French Henry is a mining camp which features a museum featuring mining related displays and mine tours. The Aztec Mine tour actually takes participants inside Baldy Mountain. Furthermore, gold panning and blacksmithing classes are offered for Scouts to participate in.

"When you jump for joy, beware that no one moves the ground from beneath your feet." ~ Stanislaw Jerzy Lec
BACKCOUNTRY STAFF

HARLAN

JADA McGIRT - CD, BRANDON ARGENT, DAVID AYLIFF, JARROD DEROO, JONATHAN HILL, ZACHARY SCHOTT, TRISTIAN WAGNER

Programming at Harlan includes 12-gauge shotgun shooting of clay pigeons and competitive burro racing between crews.

“THERE IS JUST ONE HOPE FOR REPULSING THE TYRANNICAL AMBITION OF CIVILIZATION TO CONQUER EVERY NICHE OF THE WHOLE EARTH. THAT HOPE IS THE ORGANIZATION OF SPIRITED PEOPLE WHO WILL FIGHT FOR THE FREEDOM OF THE WILDERNESS.” - ROBERT MARSHALL
Backcountry Staff

Head of Dean

This camp, located at the head of Dean Canyon, is the home of the ‘Dean Challenge.’ This course is another C.O.P.E. related course that offers Scouts an opportunity to grow as individuals, leaders and team members.

“I think laughter may be a form of courage. As humans we sometimes stand tall and look into the sun and laugh, and I think we are never more brave than when we do that.” ~ Linda Ellerbee

Edward Price, Garrett Clark, Daniel Bossaller, Helen Ford, Kimberly Ford - ACD, Stephen Crane - CD

Hunting Lodge is located on the trail between Cimarroncito and Clarks Fork. Beautiful landscapes surround this camp, including:

- The backside of Window Rock, Cimarroncito Peak and Bear Mountain. Their program includes a cabin tour and a history lesson on Waite Phillips. They also offer the best biscuits on the Ranch!

"He who hunts two hares from one bush, is not likely to catch either." ~ Chinese Proverb
BACKCOUNTRY STAFF

INDIAN WRITINGS

A camp celebrating the Anasazi Indians who once lived in this area, Indian Writings offers scouts the opportunity to visit a slab house, pit house, Indian remains and pictographs. Programs offer archaeological digging, tours of the petroglyphs and a small museum related to the area.

ADAM BRASCHLER, DAN BENNETT, STACIA KOSTER, KIRA REDZINAK - CD, BATBAYAR DASHNYAN, ROSEMARY McCANN
NESTLED IN THE HILLS BETWEEN FOWLERS MESA, TRAIL PEAK, AND SCHAEFERS PASS, MINERS PARK IS PERFECTLY POSITIONED AS A ROCK-CLIMBING CAMP. THE 30-MINUTE HIKE TO THE CLIMBING AREA IS WELL WORTH THE VIEW AND EXCITING PROGRAM THIS CAMP OFFERS. MINERS PARK ALSO BOASTS A SHOWER HOUSE, ENVIRONMENTAL AWARENESS TRAINING, A CLIMBING TOWER AND A BOULDERING WALL. A POPULAR ATTRACTION IS THE EXHILARATING ROCK WALL COMPETITION GAME, BANDANGO.
Miranda is the Mountain Man Rendezvous location. Here Scouts shoot black powder rifles, throw tomahawks and receive a trade talk about old rendezvous mountain men such as Jim Bridger and John Coulter.
Phillips Junction, also known as “PJ,” is the main commissary camp and trading post for the South Country. In addition to stocking up on supplies for the trail, Scouts can buy fishing licenses and even take showers here.
Traditional programming at Ponil has focused on western lore and includes horseback riding and the use of authentic western lariats for cattle roping lessons. In addition, Ponil has a commissary, a root beer selling cantina, and a trading post. Dinners and breakfasts are themed around chuckwagon meals. Evenings offer a Cantina show or campfire readings.

PUEBLANO

The South Ponil Log Dogs are headquartered at Pueblano, a lively interpretive camp that offers spar-pole climbing and railroad tie construction as part of the Continental Tie and Lumber Company, as well as a “Philmont Story” evening campfire program. But the undisputed favorite offering of Pueblano is the Loggerball game held every evening right after dinner.
The Kit Carson Museum is part of Rayado’s program, and highlights Kit’s contributions to the settlement of the Beaubien/Miranda Land Grant. It showcases how life would have looked in a typical New Mexico homestead in the 1850’s. A blacksmith demonstrates the various techniques and the uses of metalworking for this time period. The garden highlights what homesteaders probably grew during the period. Additionally, Scouts get the chance to hone their skills chucking tomahawks and learn about black powder rifles.
The homesteading program here is complete with barnyard animals, ranch chores, and a tour/talk about the ranch and surrounding area. Scouts learn Frontier skills such as rail splitting, shingle making, primitive farming, and log structure construction. There is also a small commissary.
Backcountry Staff

Ring Place

Programming at the Ring Place consists of interpretive tours of the camps fifteen room homestead, wildlife observation, and conservation projects. Astronomy is offered in the evenings and scouts get a chance to gaze through a professional telescope, observing the rings of Saturn and many other distant stars and moons. Additionally, crews are taught how to predict the weather in a wilderness setting.
Rocky Mountain Scout Camp, located just below the Tooth of Time, is the home of NAYLE (National Advanced Youth Leadership Experience). NAYLE is the ultimate in training experiences for youth leaders, both young men and women. It is conducted for older Scouts who have the potential for being on the staff of the Council Junior Leader Training or Youth Leader Training Conference.

SAWMILL

SAWMILL IS RENOWNED FOR OWNING THE BEST SUNRISE OF ANYWHERE ON PHILMONT SCOUT RANCH. A 30-06 RIFLE RANGE AND RELOADING PROGRAM ARE THE STAPLES OF THIS CAMP.

GRANT REIGELMAN - CD, EFREM LIRTZMAN, JOSHUA PACK, JIM RASTETTER, MATTHEW WINELAND
BACKCOUNTRY STAFF

SEALLY CANYON

Programming at Seally Canyon consists of teaching scouts search and rescue (SAR) techniques as well as outdoor skills such as wilderness medicine, GPS technology, and emergency first aid.

Though a highly practical program, the staff makes sure there is also plenty of fun involved!

Rebecca Bood’ee, Eden Hafernik, Brandon Wetzel, Michael Welch - CD
Positioned on the northeast side of Urraca Mesa, Urraca Camp is ideally situated for watching breath-taking sunrises from Inspiration Point. Urraca offers a ropes and challenge course designed to foster crew unity and build teamwork. The camp also presents a “Philmont Story” performance at their evening campfire program.
Backcountry Staff

Ute Gulch

Ute Gulch is first and foremost a commissary and is the most extensive on in the backcountry. They distribute dehydrated food, fuel and staples to the backpackers hiking through the area. The Trading Post also carries an extensive collection of patches, postcards and stamps. But, Ute Gulch is more than just a food warehouse. The establishment offers some of the funniest employees on the ranch who organize alternating games such as dirt hockey, softball and Mountain biking and abundant wildlife viewings are the main staples of programming at Scenic Whiteman Vega. With the scenic surroundings of Philmont, and the intensity of some of the rides, the best word to describe Whiteman Vega is “intense”.

Casey Saunders, Andrew Breckenridge, Eric Wardlaw - CD, Andrew Waters, Eric Schettek, Peter Reigelman
Zastrow is located in the lush Rayado River Valley in Philmont’s South Country. The camp resides next to the Rayado River, where the surrounding vegetation is beautiful and plentiful. Zastrow’s program offerings include: land navigation training, such as map and compass orienteering skills, Dutch-oven cooking and a Scout re-dedication ceremony.
“The principle is competing against yourself. It’s about self-improvement, about being better than you were the day before.”

CONSERVATION

“Conservation means the wise use of the earth and its resources for the lastling good of men.” ~ Gifford Pinchot
Thanks to these hard working guys and gals, we eat!

The entire Food Services staff is divided into several smaller crews designated to certain duties around the ranch. The Summit staff work in the kitchens of both CHQ and PTC. The Dining Hall staff consists of two groups, one rotating between working the CHQ staff and camper dining hall, and the other at PTC. The Commissary guys contribute to food services by delivering popular foods to the back country camps and as well as restocking trail meals for campers along their treks. This friendly bunch helps keep our tummies full and happy daily! Many thanks!!!
