ROCK CLIMBING PROGRAM COUNSELOR
POSITION DESCRIPTION

POSITION CONCEPT

The Program Counselor is responsible for cheerfully and willingly serving as a member of a specific camp, whose objective is to serve the campers and advisors who come to Philmont. Your primary duty is to help make the program at your camp meet the expectations of those who participate and help fulfill the entire work load of the camp. You are directly responsible to the Camp Director of your camp.

PHILMONT REQUIREMENTS

- Provide and maintain a cheerful, helpful and efficient service to all Philmont guests. Insure that all participants have an enjoyable experience. When possible, solve their needs and concerns, when not possible, steer them to someone who can.
- Carry out the prescribed policies and procedure of the Philmont Scout Ranch as outlined in the Staff Guidebook and during staff training.
- Become familiar with all materials supplied prior to the camping season.
- Present oneself to every participant and guest clean, sharp appearing and correctly uniformed as described in the Staff Guidebook.
- Become familiar with all pertinent Philmont policies and procedures.
- Must be 18 years of age by time of employment.

PRINCIPLE RESPONSIBILITIES

- At the direction and supervision of the Camp Director, participate in the specialized rock climbing program training during staff training week.
  - You must show proficiency in climbing skills and pass an exit test to be issued a climbing instructor card.
- Become thoroughly familiar with all information relative to the program specialty, so you can answer questions and deliver a stimulating and informative program of consistently high quality.
- Under the direction of the Camp Director, continue on-the-job training throughout the season, sharing your expertise with fellow staff members and learning theirs through cross training.

DAILY OPERATIONS

- Present programs on time with all materials on hand, ready to go.
- Present a program that imparts useful knowledge that supports aims and objective of the Boy Scouts of America and is fun, challenging, stimulating and safe.
• Maintain a clean and efficient program area.
• Check material frequently and keep the Camp Director informed of any supplies needed.
• Assist the Camp Director or Assistant Camp director with equipment inspections and records.
• Insure proper use, security and care of program equipment.
• Help your Camp Director compile information for an end of season report from your observations and knowledge of the program(s).
• Assist with camp chores – cleaning showers and latrines, checking in crews, checking trails and trail camps.
• Assist with other staff responsibilities as directed by the Camp Director to insure that the mission of the Philmont Scout Ranch is carried out.
